

Got me to stay, said that you need me
Starved 'cause his words don't have a meaning
No, they don't, at least not to me
There'll be a day, I'll be more creative
A poetic way to say, "I'm not leaving"
To the world, not to your face, mm

chorus

I'll take my pride, stand here for you
No, I'm not blind, just seeing it through You'd take my life just for the thrill
I'll take tonight and die on this hill
I always will

Know that I look stubborn, impatient
But you wrote the book, I just took a page out
To be loved, to be loved and nothing more
And you kept your word, do you want a medal?
The way that someone leaves this world
Is all just levels to me now, oh, to me now

chorus

I'll take my pride, stand here for you
Know I'm not blind, just seeing it through
You'd take my life just for the thrill
I'll take tonight and die on this hill
I always will

bridge

I'll be here the whole night
I'll be here 'cause I can
Yeah, I know you don't care
I know nothing could matter
God, I wish something mattered to you

chorus

I'll take my pride, stand here for you
Know I'm not blind, just seeing it through
You'd take my life just for the thrill
I'll take tonight and die on this hill

I always, always, I always will
