FOLDED

It's so silly of me to act like I don't need you bad

When all, all I can think about is us since I seen you last

I know I didn't have to walk away

All I had to do was ask for space

I'm telling you, "be on your way"

When I told you to fall back

CHORUS

So can you come pick up your clothes?

I have them folded

Meet me at the door while it's still open

I know it's getting cold out, but it's not frozen

So come pick up your clothes

I have them folded

I'll let your body decide if this is good enough for you

Already folding it for you

Already folding up for you

I'll let your body decide if this is good enough for you

Already folding it for you

Already folding up for you

No matter what you do to switch the story up, I know I made my mark

And I would still choose you through it all, that's the crazy part (Crazy part)

I don't need no more empty promises, promise me that you got it

I don't need roses, just need some flowers from my garden

Can't you go back to how you loved on me when you started?

I'll be here begging for ya, you should be giving me love

All damn day, 'til the day is done (Done)

So if you wanna go that way, I'll be waiting on

CHORUS

For you to come pick up your clothes

I have them folded

Meet me at the door while it's still open

I know it's getting cold out, but it's not frozen

So come pick up your clothes

I have them folded

So come pick up your clothes

I have them folded

Meet me at my door while it's still open

I know it's getting cold out, but tell me that it's not frozen

So come pick up your clothes

I have them folded

I'll let your body decide if this is good enough for you

Already folding it for you

Already folding up for you

I'll let your body decide if this is good enough for you

Already folding it for you

Already folding up for you

I'll let your body decide if this is good enough for you

Already folding it for you

Already folding up for you

I'll let your body decide if this is good enough for you

Already folding it for you

Already folding up for you
