

Let's get the party started
 See you at the bar, you was hardly talkin'
 That's when I knew that your heart was scarrin'
 Friends to lovers, need a part to star in, like, "Wait, babe"
 Let me ask your pardon
 This ain't Gucci, this is Prada, darlin'
 If you want somethin', you can ask me, darlin'
 Then you started laughin' 'cause you think I'm jokin'
 But lookin' in your eyes is the best thing
 Brake lights givin' you the red skin
 You was in a bad mood from we stepped in Though you checked out 'fore we even checked in
 On the phone you gon' vent to your best friend
 The one who gave me the lecture, but I ain't gon' sweat you, babe
 I'ma let you catch up with your boy, undress you
 And let me tell you why I'ma bless you

 It's the way my mind fallin' away
 In my heart, I know
 You feel the same when you're with me

You know I'm all you need
 You're where I wanna be
 My darling, can't you see?

I love you
 I love you
 I love you
 I love you
 I love you

Fell into you
 Say you want me in the mood
 Tryna hide my feelings for you
 Don't wanna argue, not with you
 Tell me why you're so in denial
 Hold me close, don't tell me goodnight
 Are you down to get me?
 Tell me when you're ready, I'm ready (Yeah)
 We can get into it or we can get intimate

The shower when you sing in it
 Better than Beyoncé, I like the sound of fiancée
 You know, it's got a little ring to it
 And really when I think of it
 Growin' up, I didn't ever see marriages
 No weddings, no horse, no carriages
 I wanna do things different and change the narrative
 God knows you a wild child, beautiful child, I need your help
 Lookin' like you come from the '90s by yourself
 My mum sixty-one and her favourite line to tell her son is Sometimes she wish that she had a girl (Girl)
 I wanna take you back to a time, back to a trip
 You had that white wine that I never got to sip
 And dinner wasn't ruined 'cause you never got to pick
 I know that everybody told me that I'm sick 'cause

 It's the way my mind fallin' away
 In my heart, I know
 You feel the same when you're with me
 You know I'm all you need

You're where I wanna be
My darling, can't you see?

(I love you) Me and you, never let me go
(I love you) Me and you, I'll tell you two times
Me and you, never let me go
(I love you) Me and you, I'll tell you two times
It's me and you, never let me go
(I love you) Me and you, I'll tell you two times
Me and you, never let me go
Me and you, I'll tell you two times

I said lean with it, rock with it (You're the only one I want)
Your finger, I can put a rock in it (You're the only one, my baby)
Finger, I can put a rock in it (You're the only one I want)
Banker, they can put a block in it (You're the only one, my baby)
Said rock with it, bounce with it (You're the only one I want)
Your left wrist, I can put my house in it (You're the only one, my baby)
You wanna bet, babe? I can put my house in it (You're the only one I want)
Babe, I could put my spouse in it (You're the only one, my baby)

I said shimmy-shimmy, yay, shimmy, shimmy-shimmy, yah
 5'9", brown eyes, and she in it, in it
 Shimmy-shimmy, yay, shimmy, shimmy-shimmy, yah
 5'9", brown eyes, innit, innit
 Shimmy-shimmy, yay, shimmy, shimmy-shimmy, yah
 5'9", brown eyes, and she in-in—
 Shimmy-shimmy, yay, shimmy, shimmy-shimmy, yah
 5'9", brown eyes
